

June 6th 2009
14-00 – 18-00

JOINT SESSION OF LINK AND SPIEF «Resurgence of the global economic activity: when and where? Perspectives from business and international experts » Jointly with UN, Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs, CMASF and “Vedomosti” newspaper

How long will the global economic crisis last? Post-crisis development perspectives for key countries and regions. Emerging economic leaders among countries, regions and industries. Global economy growth and key markets recovery: main scenarios. Is there strategic consistency between business and government? New global economic regulators: business perspective. New structure of the world economy: perspective of the business elites

Moderator

Alexander Shokhin, President, Russian Union of Industrialists and Entrepreneurs

Speakers:

- Robert Alexander Mundell, Nobel Laureate in Economics, Professor of Economics at Columbia University
- Rob Vos, Director, UN Social and Economic Development Policy and Analysis Division
- Hans Timmer, Lead Economist and Manager of the Global Trends Team, World Bank International
- Ján Kubiš, United Nations Under-Secretary-General Executive Secretary of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe
- Klaus Kleinfeld, President and Chief Executive Officer of Alcoa International
- Sergey Vybornov, President, ALROSA Co. Ltd
- Sergei Guriev, Rector, New Economic School
- Alexander Pertsovsky, Chief Executive Officer, Renaissance Capital
- Igor Serov, Chief Executive Officer, United Industrial Corporation

